To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this Letter of Recommendation for Jonah Watson in recognition of his good performance during his internship as a Financial Analyst at Cintron Management Limited from January 20, 2025, to March 28, 2025.

Cintron Management Limited is a boutique mid-market investment firm specializing in cross-border public and private transactions, financial advisory services, and corporate finance. During his internship, Jonah Watson was responsible for a range of tasks in the field of financial and business analysis and management.

Throughout the internship, Jonah Watson has consistently demonstrated competency in proactivity and self-motivation. He efficiently and consistently ensured that tasks were completed on time and to the standards. His integrity and competence were evident in every assignment he undertook, from smaller tasks to complex assignments.

Jonah Watson's primary responsibilities included conducting financial and business analysis and data collection for M&A targets in the U.S. He conducted some research on company valuation and market trends, compiling detailed industry and market reports and case studies. In addition, Jonah Watson tackled challenging analysis tasks, such as executing financial and marketing assessments.

Jonah Watson's ability to collaborate with his fellow interns and supervisors was good. He fostered positive working relationships and rapport with his peers, contributing to a harmonious and productive work environment. His foundation in accounting and analytical skills allowed him to apply his expertise to his assigned tasks.

I highly recommend Jonah Watson. He is a knowledgeable and passionate professional who exhibits potential, an ability to learn, and an enthusiasm for personal and professional growth. I have no doubt that he will bring value to any institution or company he joins.

I would like to express my gratitude to Jonah Watson for his contributions during his time at our firm. I wish him all the best in his future endeavors, both professionally and personally.

Best regards,

Susan Ren, Supervisor
